How to Make a Booking

There are THREE ways to book for library events:

1. Go to stonnington.vic.gov.au/library to view all upcoming events.

   Click ‘book online’ next to the event you wish to attend.

   Enter the number of tickets you wish to book and your contact details.

   You will receive an email confirmation once your booking is complete.

   Check individual events in this booklet to find out when bookings open for that particular event.

2. Visit any one of our libraries and our helpful staff will book you in to attend your chosen event.

3. Ring any of our libraries or the History Centre to make a booking.

While every effort is made to ensure the information contained in this publication is correct at the time of printing, details are subject to change.

[untitled] literary festival: our writers, readers and stories

16 – 23 November

Don’t miss our annual literary festival!

We’re working behind the scenes on our sixth annual [untitled] literary festival to bring you a bumper program of author talks, in conversations and writing workshops. From new voices in Australian writing to authors at the top of their field, there’ll be something for everyone to enjoy.

[untitled] literary festival: our writers, readers and stories will launch on 16 November. The full festival program will be revealed on 2 October. Bookings will open at 10am on 6 October. More information will be available on our website in September.

What’s Your Story? Writing Competition

Calling all Stonnington writers!

Stonnington residents and visitors are invited to submit their stories to What’s your story? a short story, poetry and photo-storytelling competition run by our library service as part of our annual [untitled] literary festival. Prizes are awarded in both adult and youth categories.

The competition opens Tuesday 1 August and closes 4pm Saturday 30 September.

Winners will be notified via phone or email by Friday 3 November 2017. Winners will be announced at the festival launch on 16 November. For more information about the competition, including submission guidelines, conditions of entry and prizes, visit stonnington.vic.gov.au/library
For Children
Research shows that children who are read to every day from an early age have extended vocabularies and increased reading readiness when they enter school.

We’re calling on local families to register and share 1000 books with their children from birth until when they begin school. By reading just one book each evening, the 1000-book target can be achieved in less than three years, and instil a lifelong love of books and learning in children.

How 1000 Books Before School works

› Register at any of our four libraries to receive your first Reading Record and kit to get you started. A library membership is required to join the program.

› Mark, colour or place a sticker on your Reading Record each time you read together with your child.

› Each time you reach a milestone in your Reading Record, bring it in to your local library for a special reward. Milestones are set at 100, 250, 500, 750 and 1000 books.

› Every book that your child completes, or actively listens to, counts; this includes stories read at Storytime sessions, daycare, playgroup, kindergarten, as well as the same book over and over again. You can read books anywhere – not just library books.

The program finishes once your child reaches 1000 books or starts school. Congratulations!
Discover techniques to help you and your baby enjoy books together.

Over two consecutive sessions, we’ll show you how to select the best baby books, share our reading recommendations and read-aloud techniques with you. We’ll also explore digital storytelling.

Meet other parents from the local area and watch your baby take curious delight in the other little people and books in the room.

Suitable for parents and children 4 months to 18 months old.
All sessions begin at 10.30am and run for 45 minutes.
