Human Sacrifice Theatre presents an Australian Premiere

The Late Henry Moss

By Sam Shephard

By arrangement with Hal Leonard Australia Pty Ltd, on behalf of Josef Weinberger Ltd.

Directed by David Myles

In Bernalillo, New Mexico, Ray and Earl return home to mark the passing of their estranged father, Henry. Over a bottle of bourbon and a box of old photographs, tales of their childhoods emerge. As they encounter Henry's bizarre collection of friends (including his wild, voracious lover) the colourful circumstances surrounding his death provokes violent suspicion.

A cabaret featuring Trevor Jones

84 songs, one man, a piano and the dice are rolling...

After two years of performing in piano bars around the world, Trevor Jones brings his unique cabaret performances to Chapel Off Chapel. With a huge repertoire including pop and rock favourites, musical theatre and jazz standards, By Chance is a show where the song list is determined by the audience, with a simple roll of the dice. Should the dice decide - audience requests are even on the cards! Trevor's charismatic singing, playing and story-telling are waiting to see if 'Luck will be a Lady'. Come and 'Take a Chance on Me...'

Cara Cleary and Reuben Krum present Reuben Krum and Cara Cleary in

Be a Little Less Stupid

With songs by Tom Lehrer, Carole King, Victoria Wood, George Benson and more!

A fast-paced, all singing, all dancing comic revue of songs, sketches and cautionary tales about the stupid things we all say and do...and then regret later on public transport.

Two VCA Graduates who have lived life 'poor' and lived life 'wealthy' (for a couple of days when they got their tax return) offer their impressive bruises and absurd stories for you to learn from and laugh at. A contemporary lesson on the art of common (non)sense.

May contain traces of nuts.

May contain choking hazards for children under 39.

Don't sue us, we already spent the tax return.

8, 9, 14 and 15 August 8pm, 10 August 7:30pm

Tickets: $25 Full and $20 Groups 10+

CLOSER

by Patrick Marber

PMD Productions present

Closer

By Patrick Marber

Larry is a dermatologist, Anna is a photographer, Dan writes obituaries and Alice is a stripper. Four people meet and, over a period of years, fall in love, change partners, and emotionally torture each other beyond the point of no return.

Not for the emotionally squeamish, Closer mercilessly exposes the darker side of our relationships.

Swinburne Centenary Exhibition

Pen to Pixel: 100 years of design education at Swinburne

16 July - 3 August

Swinburne University of Technology's Faculty of Design presents an exhibition celebrating the work of outstanding designers and media practitioners. Graduates of this small, but influential institution, from the earliest years when design and art training were provided. A publication to accompany the exhibition also documents the changing face of education in design, media and art over the past century. The exhibition will be held in association with the Melbourne International Design Festival July 2008.

Focusing on a series of successful designers, media practitioners and design studios established by Swinburne graduates to represent the decades, the exhibition brings together a diverse range of individuals and practices. Through their achievements, changes in Australian culture, society and economy can be charted and with them, the rise of new design professions and new media disciplines.
