Stonnington news

A word from the Mayor

It's time to get out and enjoy sunny weather and experience all the great events our community is known for.

Through this special edition of Stonnington News, you'll find many things to see and do over summer, right across our amazing City.

Since our last edition of Stonnington News, we've opened a new dedicated dog park in South Yarra at the Thomas Oval and reopened a restored Harold Holt dive pool – two fantastic venues for everyone to enjoy! If you haven't already had a chance to visit, make sure you put them on your summer list.

We have also planned a fun-filled events and festivals program that will take place over summer.

The program includes our Christmas Concerts at Central Park and Como Park, and our summer series of Sunset Sounds and The Classics, as well as live productions at Chapel Off Chapel and our library-based school holidays program. I'd also encourage you to get out and enjoy some of our great parks and gardens, pools and sporting grounds. Plus, there's lots to do and see at Prahran Square and in our premier shopping and dining areas.

With a State Government election this year, it was a great opportunity for Council to continue advocating on your behalf for commitments to Stonnington. We will continue to work with the new State Government elected into office, and advocate on the things that matter the most to our residents including the environment and climate action, transport and traffic, planning and development, community facilities and health.

Each November Councillors vote for the Mayor and Deputy Mayor for the following year. As the current term finishes, I'd like to highlight a few of the great things that have been achieved. In addition to the Harold Holt dive pool and the Thomas Oval dog park, we've also started construction on new sports facilities at the Percy Treyvaud Memorial Park to address the shortfall of facilities for our women and girls. We have completed the sports courts upgrades, Chapel forecourt and car park at Princes Gardens, as well as the redevelopment of Como Park, and launched the Lost Lands Found project in Central Park.

There's so much happening in Stonnington and there's lots to look forward to this summer. I invite you to get out there, get involved and enjoy your community in the sunshine!

I wish everyone a happy festive season and hope that you all get to spend time with your family and friends.

Smiles all round at Serrell Street kinder

In August, when the Serrell Street kindergarten community was informed that the service would close at the end of the 2022, around fifty families faced an uncertain future of not knowing where or when their children could attend kinder in 2023.

Fast forward several months later, and with thanks to the continued efforts of Council's Community Services, who facilitated meetings between parents, the Department of Education and Glen Education, Serrell Street kinder is open for business – and is welcoming children.

The kinder will benefit from the management and high-quality service offered by Glen Education, a not-for-profit Early Years Manager, whose role is to provide inclusive programs that foster a lifelong love of learning.

From 2023, the service will be known as Glen Serrell Street Kindergarten. Parents and families are grateful to East Ward Councillors for the support they provided to families during the kinder's closure.

Stonnington Mayoral election

On 22 November, Councillors voted to appoint the Mayor and Deputy Mayor for the coming year.

Visit stonnington.vic.gov.au/ news for the results

"This is a fantastic result for our residents, our children and our families in this local area, and for the Serrell Street kinder community. When confronted with adversity of being told the kinder was to close at short notice the parents and the local community rallied. Without their hard work, the kinder would not have been saved."

— Cr Lew East Ward

THE SURVEY SAYS

Each year we conduct an annual Community Satisfaction Survey, which includes a list of Victorian State Government-mandated questions, surveying 400 randomly-selected community members about their perceptions of Council.

In order to get further in-depth insights, this year, we followed up with a series of focus groups.

Insights from this research revealed Stonnington ranks higher than the metropolitan average in appearance of public areas, as well as customer service, and on par with waste management services across metropolitan Melbourne with a satisfaction level of 71 per cent.

Three times as many residents rated the value for money they receive from Council in infrastructure and services as very good or good (45 per cent) than rates it as very poor or poor (15 per cent), although there is still some work to be done in this space.

Younger residents aged 18–34 rated council's overall performance higher than those aged 50–64. There was also strong support from residents for the return of face-to-face community meetings – something we're addressing with our recent community forums.

Council is listening to and taking action on feedback that indicated opportunities for improvement, including communication, community engagement and advocacy. Our digital improvement program will also ensure we're able to be more responsive to requests and provide our customers with more information about our services.

Make a splash

Summertime in Stonnington can mean only one thing spending a day at one of our pools.

This year, we saw the long-awaited return of the dive pool at Harold Holt Swim Centre, now fully restored to its former glory.

After its closure to the public since 2003, the dive pool was officially reopened on a sunny, blue-sky October day to an enthusiastic gathering of pool goers.

If heights and diving aren't your thing, there are many other ways to enjoy hot days at our aquatic venues.

The new outdoor spa has also opened, and the existing 50m outdoor and 25m indoor pools remain a popular 'go to' destination. The leisure pool and splash park are great for families and kids to hang out and keep cool.

Prahran Aquatic Centre is also gearing up for some more summertime poolside fun, with Live Jams, where the music will be pumping from live DJ decks across the 50m outdoor pool.

GIVE YOUR OLD CHRISTMAS TREE A SECOND CHANCE

Cut and plastic Christmas trees have become festive mainstays, but both come with a sizeable carbon footprint.

Consider a potted living tree that you can grow and enjoy year after year or decorate your home with ornaments you've collected over time. Or if you just can't resist a natural cut tree, make use of our free drop-off service at the Stonnington Waste Transfer Station, between 26 December 2022 and 31 January 2023. We'll put your once much-cherished tree to work by turning it into mulch to nurture new plants.

Find our Waste Transfer Station hours and address at stonnington.vic.gov.au/depot

Getting smart about FOGO waste

In early-2023, we're running a three-month trial using smart technology to enhance our waste collection service.

If you have one of the new food and green waste bins you could be part of the trial.

STEP 1

When the truck empties a RFID-fitted FOGO bin, it collects data including the bin ID, location, date and time.

STEP 2

The driver reports any issues with the bin or collection via an in-truck tablet.

STEP 3

A report is created and allocated to the property in real time for our customer service team and waste officers.

STEP 4

From there, our waste team can generate any work orders needed to the truck driver via a notification back to the in-truck tablet.

WHAT DATA IS COLLECTED?

The RFID trial will collect data about when and where bins are collected, any bin issues, and service requests.

THE BENEFITS

By embedding smart technology into our waste collection services we can

- > efficiently track stolen, lost or misplaced bins
- identify, understand, and address persistent waste contamination
- > deliver community education and engagement campaigns, and
- > provide better customer support and reduce response times through accurate real time data.

Leading the way on single-use plastics ban

On 1 February 2023, the Victorian Government's Single-Use Plastics Ban comes into effect.

Supply of straws, cutlery, plates, drink stirrers, expanded polystyrene food and drink containers and cotton bud sticks will be banned. Single-use plastics are a big problem and the ban is a major win for our environment.

To support the ban, we're leading the way with our own Plastic Free Policy outlining our commitment to reducing and eventually eliminating the use of single-use plastics across our operations, services and events, and at private events held on Council land and in Council-managed sites.

We've also created resources to support our businesses and residents to prepare for the ban, understand the environmental impact of single-use plastics, and transition to sustainable, reusable alternative items.

Going full circle on waste management

In September, we adopted the Towards a Circular Economy, Our Future Waste Strategy (2022-25).

This is our first standalone waste strategy and it was informed by a comprehensive community engagement program to deliver a three-year plan that will guide our transition to a circular economy approach to waste management.

Our Waste Strategy outlines the principles, priorities, and actions towards a new way of thinking about waste where resources are valued and kept in use for as long as possible.

The strategy identifies our priorities to avoid and reduce waste, reuse for as long as possible, and recover and make waste history.

Supporting the priorities are a series of actions to help create a stronger, healthier, more connected and resilient city, and support our climate emergency response.

Download the free MyStonnington app to your phone, to stay on top of bin collection days, what goes in each bin and hard waste collections.

Ziegfeld Boy

3-5 February 2023

Take a trip back in time and witness vaudeville the way it should have been; a decadent world of glitz and glamour.

In the indulgent tradition of the Ziegfeld Follies, Ziegfeld Boy flips the traditional gender roles, glorifying the homosexual boy through a series of songs, skits and plenty of sass. It features some of the most infamous diva songs of the 20th century reimagined for the gay-male-gaze, including Le Jazz Hot, Heatwave and Get Happy, among many others.

Follies Girl

3-5 February 2023

Acclaimed cabaret diva and trans icon Mama Alto takes on a new adventure.

Inspired by the Folies Bergère, the Ziegfield Follies, and the golden age of MGM movie musicals, Mama Alto is Follies Girl. There's no business like show business and this stunning hour of vaudeville delights will transport you to a classic era of mid-century glamour reinterpreted with contemporary queer flair.

LIVE MUSIC

Chapel Summer Sessions

17 February 2023

This February, Chapel Off Chapel presents a lineup of Australia's most exciting and well-loved musicians for its amazing Chapel Summer Sessions series.

From meeting on the cricket pitch to recording their debut album with the help of Matt Corby, Great Gable is not a band to do things in the standard way. They've been selling out multiple national and international tours and amassing millions of online streams. Don't miss your chance to see and hear their rhythmic, evocative, guitar-driven Rock and Roll live at the Chapel.

Do The Wall Crawl over summer

Stonnington is home to many murals dotted around our precincts, adorning walls and buildings and brightening laneways.

Some may capture your thoughts and imagination for the first time, others are well-known signifiers, paying tribute to the precinct they celebrate.

They've all been created by some of the most dynamic local and national artists and others have been commissioned for a very specific purpose.

Included in the selection is Spring Parrots by Minna Leunig, which can be found in the Prahran Square Library, and complements Leunig's sister piece, Flow of Life on the outer façade of the Malvern Library.

Mural artist and designer Paul Sonsie's work Shifts and Shapes can be found on Elizabeth Street next to Prahran Market, and another of his murals is located at 224 Malvern Road, Prahran. The Bert Healy Pavilion has never looked brighter with the addition of renowned artist Emma Coulter's piece Spatial Deconstruction #27 spanning the entire wall of the pavilion.

Taking his inspiration from the many faces of Chapel Street, and indoor flora that became a trend throughout the pandemic, Tom Gerrard's mural Pot Plants has completely transformed the wall on the corner of Chapel and Barry streets, South Yarra.

A short walk over to Prahran will take you to a whimsical work depicting two girls enjoying a typical rainy Melbourne day, by local artist BeFree, appropriately painted on the facade of the Princes Close Childcare Centre.

Increasing open space for all to enjoy

The City of Stonnington has the second lowest amount of public open space per person in any Victorian Council, but we're working hard to find new ways to provide this valuable resource.

When we developed our Public Realm Strategy in 2010, one of our actions was to prepare a land acquisition and conversion strategy to support the plan for increasing the provision of open space in Stonnington. It's called Strategies for Creating Open Space.

From time to time we purchase properties to facilitate the creation of additional open space for community enjoyment.

The new pocket park at 7 Hobson Street, South Yarra, is an example of this policy in action.

Identified as a location for future open space as part of our Hawksburn Village Structure Plan (2016), we purchased the site in late 2018. In collaboration with the local community, this site has been fully converted into open space and features an irrigated lawn, tiered garden beds and a shelter with bespoke seating, offering an informal space for community gatherings.

"I have heard very clearly that you love our parks and gardens, but want more of them. Which is why in the last five years we have spent just over $50 million purchasing land to turn into green spaces. We are always on the lookout for more opportunities to ensure nature is close to home."

- Cr Hely North Ward

More information about recent open space conversions can be found at stonnington.vic.gov.au/openspace

Businesses going full circle with concierge service

Integrating a circular economy into any business's daily operations can be a mind-boggling experience.

So, understanding what a circular economy is, and how it can improve environmental outcomes is the first step.

This year, our Business Concierge Service enabled 10 local businesses to take this first step, by offering a Go Full Circle program. The eight-week online program provided knowledge and training for participants to confidently change the way they managed their products and services, packaging and their waste, to become a more environmentally sustainable business.

Find out how the Business Concierge can help you, to:

- > navigate the permit process if you're opening, building or buying a business
- understand what permits are needed
- understand the order in which to submit applications
- > put the right documentation together when applying for permits, and
- get information and advice from across Council.

Take a ride with Stonnington Car Share

If you don't own a car but need to get from A to B to Z, you can now access a car at any time at one of the car share locations available throughout our City.

Car Share is a privately operated, membership-based service, providing access to cars and vans. Vehicles can be rented on demand, by the hour or the day and the cost includes fuel, maintenance, roadside assistance and regular cleaning.

The service offers a great alternative to personal car ownership without the expense and hassle of buying a car and ongoing maintenance. It also offers flexibility, convenience and has great environmental benefits.

A well-developed car share network can reduce parking demand in the local area, reduce car dependency, and encourage walking, cycling and public transport use.

There are now four car share companies operating in Stonnington: Flexicar, GoGet, GreenShareCar and PopCar. A total of 12 new car share bays have been added, in addition to the existing 15 plus car share bays.

Council supports further expansion of the car share network in line with our adopted Car Share Policy.

Car share locations are at Armadale, Malvern, Malvern East, Prahran, South Yarra and Windsor.

For a full list of locations or to learn about more sustainable transport options, check stonnington.vic.gov.au/ sustainable-transport

Stonnington's own big build Next year, we'll be delivering an opportunity to review the desires

Next year, we'll be delivering major build projects following extensive community engagement to inform and finalise their designs.

At the west end of town we'll be completely revamping the Prahran Skate Park and Basketball Court with a design heavily influenced by community input. As well as introducing new and challenging skating obstacles, we've listened to feedback and will retain the existing vert ramp within the park and build a new mini vert ramp. Plenty of seating, shelter and a rebuilt basketball court round out what will be a fantastic new drop in hub for skaters near and far. Construction of the skate park is planned to start by mid-2023.

Next door in Windsor, the popular Windsor Siding BMX Track is also getting a makeover in 2023. Built in 2016, the BMX track is looking a little worse for wear with the track surface needing an upgrade. We used this as an opportunity to review the design and in 2023 will fine-tune the layout to make it safer and more accessible for users of all ages and abilities. At the same time, we are upgrading the track surface to a smooth hard-wearing surface and, responding to community feedback, the surface will be reddish-brown to fit in with the surrounding natural environment.

Further afield at Toorak Village, from early 2023 we will start a six-month program of works to deliver improvements to the streetscape. Along Toorak Road, from Wallace Avenue to Grange Road, we're replacing the footpaths on both sides with high-quality concrete, bluestone and granite pavers and trim detail.

New consistent street furniture, many more trees and feature lighting will see this iconic shopping strip returned to its best. Extensive engagement with local businesses and residents played a large part in the final design, particularly around the furniture selection, pavement type and tree species.

A new, fully accessible and inclusive playground is also coming to Central Park in Malvern East. The playground, about 100 metres south of the existing playground on Kingston Street, will be fully fenced and feature accessible play elements including swings, spinners, a cubby, trampoline and play table. It will also be positioned next to a new accessible toilet block, and more accessible parking bays will be added to the Kingston Street parking area.

The northern playground is also being upgraded and will offer a more challenging play experience with climbing frame and circular swing set.

A path will link the two play spaces and a mix of hard and soft surfaces, extensive plantings and custom play items will round out a play experience the whole family will enjoy.

Fetching new park opens in South Yarra

Dogs of Stonnington have a new purpose-built park following the October opening of Thomas Oval dog park in South Yarra.

The official opening by Mayor Cr Jami Klisaris and Minister for the Environment and Climate Action, the Hon. Lily D'Ambrosio, was well attended by an excited group of dogs (and their owners) who, after giving the park a test run, were gifted a celebratory doggie bag of tasty treats, toys, a waste bag holder and coffee voucher for nearby Kanteen.

The fully-fenced park is suitable for dogs of all shapes and sizes, young and old. Within the park itself there are two fenced areas – one for your more active and energetic dog, and a smaller area for the older, quieter types.

A large expanse of lawn, natural play elements including a huge log, running track and a variety of ground materials add to the park's appeal – with lots of space to sniff and explore. The humans haven't been left out with shelters and seating in the active and quiet zones, to sit and relax while keeping an eye on their furry friends.

Entry is via the Alexandra Avenue boardwalk or from stairs leading up from Como Park below. Paw prints leading from the Yarra Trail and signs at the bottom of the boardwalk make finding your way to park a breeze.

"I am very proud of our new dedicated dog park at Thomas Oval. As a dog owner, I love taking my dogs there knowing that they have somewhere they can safely play and exercise freely in a dedicated park designed for their needs. I encourage all furry friends (and their owners) to come and explore this fantastic new facility."

The park was built by the City, in partnership with the State Government and brings the number of dog off-leash areas in Stonnington to 28.

New pavilion and oval upgrades for Toorak Park

Toorak Park is getting a new pavilion, upgraded sports oval and better lighting.

In the coming months, work will begin on the third and final stage of the Toorak Park/Victory Square master plan, including construction of a new shared-use pavilion and the redevelopment of the oval. And, with funding from the Victorian Government, at the same time we will be improving the lighting.

As an overview, the works will deliver

- a new shared-use pavilion with meeting and function rooms, storage facilities, kitchen and kiosk and amenities including female-friendly change rooms
- > a venue that is fully accessible to people of all abilities
- > new low spill, energy-efficient LED lighting to meet the standard required for AFL amateur competition and practice

- a larger, reshaped sports oval with new drainage, irrigation, turf and cricket wickets
- > an upgraded western grandstand
- > new spectator viewing areas and seating around the ground
- > a continuous pathway around the oval, and
- > landscaping and tree planting.

The new shared-use pavilion has been designed in close collaboration with Toorak Park sporting clubs. When complete, the local clubs and wider community will have a new state-of-the-art pavilion and supporting infrastructure to meet their needs now and into the future.

Construction is due to start in early 2023 and take up to two years to complete.

Sporting facilities taking shape

Nine months into the new Percy Treyvaud sports facility build, things are progressing well and on track for the planned early-2024 opening.

Car park, stadium and suspended bowling green slabs are poured, concrete panels for the inside spaces are well advanced, and steel works are underway.

The site fencing is looking very colourful with self-portraits of students from Malvern Valley Primary School, 'playing their favourite sport'.

And watch the action through windows in the site fencing.

Construction will halt from 22 December and return on 11 January.
