

Victorian Seniors Festival Reimagined 2020

Tune into local community radio to enjoy Victorian Seniors Festival programs

At GDR 95.7fm, you get to experience a music format with a broad appeal crafted with careful curation of music from the 1930s to 1980s. They cater to the void left behind by the bittersweet feeling of nostalgia in our hearts and minds. If you like evergreen classics and music that has an excellent lyrical and melodic quality, then Golden Days radio is for you. They are pleased to partner with the Victorian Seniors Festival to present radio programs for your enjoyment.

Golden Days Radio FM 95.7 Seniors Festival schedule

Mondays at 11am

- 24 August - Rats
- 31 August - Scones, Lamingtons & Chocolate Rolls
- 7 September - Seniors Dance Hall
- 14 September - Celebrate Seniors
- 21 September - Remembering the Wireless
- 28 September - Seniors Sing-a-Long
- 5 & 12 October - Music of the Sixties
- 19 October - Great American Songbook

Every Monday from 26 October onwards at 11am

- At the Picture Palace and A Night at the Theatre episodes
- Every Wednesday at 7pm - Bing Crosby & Friends episodes

Additionally, every day Golden Days Radio presents a wonderful range of music programs for your enjoyment.

This year's Festival is also running online and on radio from April to October. You can find out more about Festival video and radio programming at www.seniorsonline.vic.gov.au/festivalsandawards

There you can download Festival radio programs to listen to and also more than 50 Festival video broadcasts featuring interviews and performances

